"I HAVE REGISTERED"

'Twas a Popular Badge in Mansfield Tuesday—Observed as Holiday

"I Have Registered," was a popular badge in Mansfield Tuesday—Registration Day, when our men, between the ages of 21 to 30 inclusive, registered for army service.

The day was observed as a holiday in Mansfield, a splendid all-day program being given in the city park, and a big dinner being served on the grounds at noon. It was a big get together day in honor of the boys who registered and the excellent program arranged by Mayor F. H. Riley was enjoyed by a large audience. The seats from the air dome were used in seating the crowd in the park.

Patriotic and inspiring addresses were delivered by Rev. Fred Bruffett of Carthage, J. L. Dennis of Mansfield, and Rev. Claude Simpson Hanby of Rolla, who spoke on "The Call of the Patriotic." All the speeches were full of good thought and were well received by an appreciative audience, being among the most inspiring ever heard here.

Music was furnished by the Mansfield Concert Band throughout the day. James J. Bell of Kansas City sang, "We'll Never Let Our Old Flag Fall." The Ladies' Quartet—Misses Mabel Coday, Alice Tomblinson, Bertha Miller, Elva Turner, sang "In Time of Peace Prepare for War," and "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You." Joe H. Dennis' singing class sang several numbers. Misses Della Coday and Zada Light sang "America" and other songs, and they with Clarence Coday and Rev. Fred Bruffett composed a quartet which rendered several numbers. All the music was highly enjoyed.

Dead—Cole Hill, Mrs. George Findley and three children.

Injured—Geo. Findley, Lee Wittwer and wife.

The Fairview church was destroyed.

The school house was blown from its foundation.

Chas. Cole's barn was torn down.

All the buildings on Chas. Menne's place, except his house, were destroyed. His horses and cows were tied in the barn, but were not hurt, although the barn was demolished.

Some outbuildings on Philip Killian's place were destroyed.

Henry Hill's house was completely destroyed. Cole Hill was just starting down stairs when the tornado struck the house. He was found about 50 yards from the place where the house was, with injuries from which he died a few hours later.

The tornado struck Geo. Findley's house, killing Mrs. Findley and an 8 year-old son instantly. Harry Findley, age 19, and the 3 year-old daughter died within a few hours from injuries received. Mr. Findley was seriously hurt but may recover. Some stock was also killed at Mr. Findley's.

Lee Wittwer's house, on the old Springfield road, was struck and Mr. Wittwer and wife were badly injured. They were taken to Mountain Grove for treatment.

The wreckage is strewn for some distance from where the wrecked buildings stood.

Wednesday afternoon of last week a tornado struck east of St. George and followed a north-easterly course towards Manes, injuring two persons and destroying considerable property, Wm. Hudson being a heavy loser.

Luther Lee of Cedar Gap was here yesterday en route to Hartsville with the registration cards from Cedar Gap. He reports that the storm Tuesday night unroofed buildings and destroyed outbuildings at Cedar Gap.

Local Boy Scores as Sharpshooter in the United States Marine Corps

Special to the Mirror.
Coming rapidly to the front through his ability as a rifleman, Paul E. Divan of Mansfield, has qualified as a sharpshooter in the United States Marine Corps, according to an official bulletin from Washington. He recently made an excellent score at "slow and rapid" fire, winning the medal of a sharpshooter and an increase in pay.

Paul, who is a son of Webster M. Divan of Mansfield, enlisted in the United States Marine Corps at its Springfield recruiting station on January 11, 1917. He has just completed a course of training at Port Royal, S. C. Besides the regular military subjects, the course includes swimming, boxing, and other athletic subjects.

The U. S. Marines are the oldest branch of our military service and they take great pride in their traditions and record. Some of them are to go with the first division that America sends to France. The local sharpshooter will be well prepared to do his "bit" whenever he is called upon to display his skill in the world's fight for democracy.

Memorial Day Services

Memorial day was appropriately observed in Mansfield, a good program being given.

Rev. G. W. Holmes and his Boy Scouts were here from Seymour and drilled around the square.

Music was furnished by the Mansfield Concert Band through out the day.

The band, the Seymour and Mansfield Boy Scouts—the latter with W. H. Fullington as scoutmaster, the old soldiers, the flower girls and boys and citizens marched to the cemetery, where services were held.

Mayor F. H. Riley made a short address at the cemetery, prayer being offered by Rev. J. M. England. W. F. Day pointed out the graves of 26 soldiers, which were decorated by the Scouts, who also placed a flag at each grave. The others decorated the other graves, none being overlooked. Relatives and friends of those buried in the cemetery also placed flowers on the graves.

On account of the weather, the afternoon services were held in the M. E. church, where an excellent and timely address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Holmes.
